

NOMINATING/CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER FOR INTERSECTIONS INC.

Purpose of Committee

The purpose of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Intersections Inc. (the “Company”) is to perform the functions described below under “Committee Goals and Responsibilities”.

Committee Goals and Responsibilities

The goals and responsibilities of the Committee are to:

1. Identify individuals qualified to become Board members, and to recommend that the Board select the director nominees to stand for election as directors at any meeting of stockholders and to fill any vacancy, however created, in the Board. In nominating candidates, the Committee shall take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate, such as the experience, skill and background of the candidates.¹ The Committee may consider candidates proposed by management, but is not required to do so;
2. Identify and recommend for appointment by the Board, Board members qualified to fill vacancies on any committee of the Board, including the Committee. In nominating a candidate for committee membership, the Committee shall take into consideration the factors set forth in the charter of such committee, if any, as well as any other factors it deems appropriate;
3. Develop and recommend to the Board a code of business conduct and ethics applicable to the Company, and to review the code at least once a year;
4. Develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company, and to review those principles at least once a year. Such principles shall include, at a minimum, the following subjects: (i) director qualification standards, (ii) director responsibilities, (iii) director access to management and, as necessary and appropriate, independent advisors, (iv) director compensation, (v) director orientation and continuing education, (vi) management succession, and (vii) annual performance evaluation of the Board;
5. Prepare and deliver to the Board the evaluation required under “Performance Evaluation” below;
6. Pursuant to procedures established by the Committee, exercise oversight of the evaluation of the Board and management; and

¹ If the Company is legally required by contract or otherwise to provide third parties the ability to nominate directors, the selection and nomination of such directors need not be subject to the nominating committee process.

7. Carry out other duties or responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee by the Board from time to time relating to the nomination of Board and committee members and corporate governance.

Evaluation of Potential Nominees

In evaluating a person as a potential nominee to serve as a director of the Company, the Committee should consider among other factors it may deem relevant:

1. Whether or not the person has any relationships that might impair his or her independence, such as any business, financial or family relationships with the Company, its management or their affiliates;
2. Whether or not the person serves on boards of, or is otherwise affiliated with, competing companies;
3. Whether or not the person is willing to serve as, and willing and able to commit the time necessary for the performance of the duties of, a director of the Company;
4. The contribution which the person can make to the Board and the Company, with consideration being given to the person's business and professional experience, education and such other factors as the Committee may consider relevant; and
5. The character and integrity of the person.

While the Committee is responsible for the selection and nomination of the directors, the Committee may consider nominees recommended by stockholders of the Company as it deems appropriate. Stockholders who wish to recommend a nominee should send nominations to the Secretary of the Company that include all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of directors. The recommendation must be accompanied by a written consent of the individual to stand for election if nominated by the Board of Directors and to serve if elected by the stockholders. The recommendation must be received by the Secretary of the Company not later than the 120th calendar day before the date of the Company's proxy statement released to stockholders in connection with the Company's previous year's annual meeting, or such other date as specified under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Committee Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least two members of the Board determined by the Board to be "independent directors" under the rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Board for such term or terms as the Board may determine.

Committee Structure and Operations

A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Board shall designate a member of the Committee as its chairperson. The Committee may act by a majority of the members present at a meeting of the Committee. In the event of a tie vote on any issue, the chairperson's vote shall decide the issue. The Committee shall meet in person or telephonically at least once a year at a time and place determined by the Committee chairperson, with further meetings to occur when deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee or its chairperson. The Committee may delegate some or all of its duties to a subcommittee comprising one or more members of the Committee. The Committee may ask members of management or others whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee to attend any meetings and to provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request. The Committee shall report to the Board at least once a year.

Performance Evaluation

Each year, the Committee shall compare its performance with the requirements of this charter, set forth its objectives for the next year and recommend changes in this charter, if any, considered appropriate by the Committee. Such evaluation shall be reported to the Board in such manner as the Committee from time to time determines.

Resources and Authority of the Committee

The Committee shall have the resources and authority to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to retain counsel and other experts or consultants. The Committee shall have the sole authority to select and retain a consultant or search firm to identify director candidates, to terminate any such consultant or search firm retained by it, and to approve the consultant or search firm's fees and other retention terms.

Nothing contained in this charter is intended to, or should be construed as, creating any responsibility or liability of the members of the Committee except to the extent otherwise provided under applicable Delaware law which shall continue to set the legal standard for the conduct of the members of the Committee.
