Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departures of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective February 20, 2018, Intersections Inc. (the “Company”) promoted Melba Amissi to Chief Operating Officer. Ms. Amissi, age 44, joined the Company in 2001 and has served in a number of management positions over the years. Most recently, Ms. Amissi served as Senior Vice President, Chief Risk Officer since January 1, 2017, and prior to that became Senior Vice President, Chief of Staff on November 17, 2014, after previously serving as Vice President of Legal and Business Affairs since 2007. In these roles, Ms. Amissi was responsible for managing, directing, and implementing compliance and risk for marketing, technology, operations, customer care, information security, and human resources. Ms. Amissi received her business degree from Randolph Macon Woman’s College and she is a Certified Information Privacy Professional and IAPP Member since 2016.

Ms. Amissi is party to the Company’s standard form of employment agreement with its executive officers, the terms of which are more fully described in the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 21, 2017. Ms. Amissi will also enter into the Company’s standard indemnification agreement for directors and executive officers.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Amissi and any other persons pursuant to which she was selected as Chief Operating Officer. There are also no family relationships between Ms. Amissi and any director or executive officer of the Company and she has no direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
